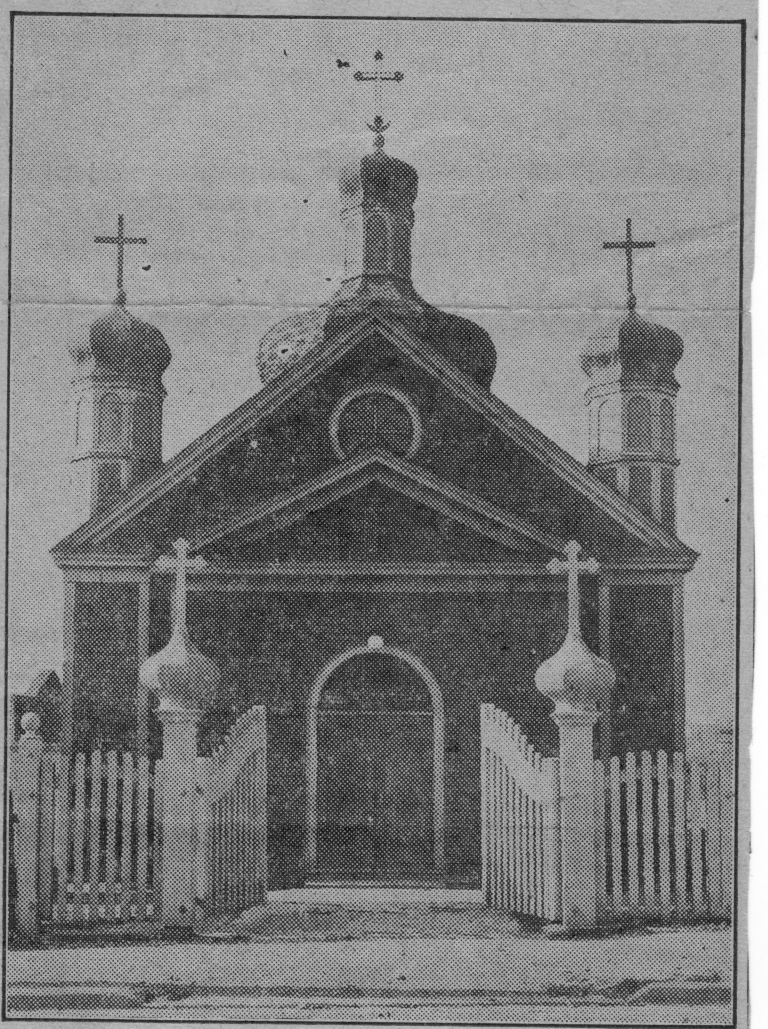
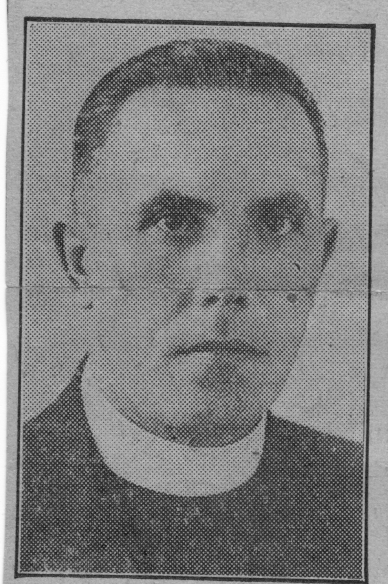
New Ukrainian Church Will Be Consecrated





A ceremony of outstanding interest to members of the Cape Breton Greek Ukranian Catholic congregation takes place tomorrow when their new church at Whitney Pier, recently completed, will be consecrated by Bishop B. V. Wladyka of Winnipeg, at special service. His Excellency will also celebrate Pontifical High Mass tomorrow morning, and will officiate at Pontifical Benediction in the evening. The pastor, Father Latocky, will assist in the special services. Above are shown the new church, the only one of its kind in the Maritime Provinces, and below, Bishop Wladyka at right, and the pastor, Father
